

"Informative and thought provoking"

Training Opportunities presented by HemHunts Partnership

"Inspiring
and liberating"

Inspire schools to inspire children

PITCH PERFECT TEACHING

Thursday 29th January 2015

Course Outline: Outstanding teaching requires perfect pitch. This involves pitching lessons at just the right level of challenge to ensure all pupils make visible and tangible progress.

Join us for this brand new course designed to inspire and offer a way to plan for and assess progress. Using our exciting and innovative Depth of Learning Index, we will help you to:

- Understand the three stages of progress: Basic, Advanced and Deep Learning (BAD)
- Discover a unique method of differentiation, based on our BAD progress materials.
- Find out why the teaching methods we use need to change at different stages of progress - BAD teaching.
- Discover how to alter the type of success criteria used as pupils progress - BAD success criteria.
- Explore the use of support staff in support and challenge for all pupils - BAD guidance.
- Find out how to match tasks correctly to the level of challenge - BAD tasks.
- Understand the role of BAD questions in securing progress for all.
- Explore BAD marking and BAD report writing.

Speaker: Alex Bedford

Venue: Huntingdon Primary School. Times: 09:00-15:30.

Courses: £140 per person, including refreshments and cold fork buffet

Discounts available for multiple bookings

To book contact Helen Sharp - 01480 375113