

Peer to Peer Evaluation

Working together to develop the skills to make our schools great

"Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success."* - Henry Ford

This programme is aimed at headteachers who are looking to work collaboratively and reciprocally with headteacher colleagues to support the journey towards developing a great school.

During the programme you will:

- ✓ explore 'great school' characteristics
- ✓ identify elements of strength and foci for further development for your school from the characteristics of great schools, supporting your improvement journey
- ✓ visit other schools, using peer review and evaluation to support great school development
- ✓ host a visit from headteacher colleagues, enabling you to further develop your great school characteristics
- ✓ undoubtedly 'snoop and steal' great school development ideas!

Programme Facilitator: Nigel Battey

Nigel was previously Senior Adviser for Cambridgeshire LA for seven years and has worked at The Eastern Leadership Centre, leading the organisation and delivery of senior leadership programmes, including NPQH. He is a lead facilitator for ELC. He was also an accredited national trainer for the Training and Development Agency, facilitating training nationally. Previously Nigel has been headteacher at two schools. Ofsted noted Nigel's "inspirational leadership". He works as a school improvement adviser to a number of schools.
